

ATTITUDES OF SERBIAN CITIZEN

About protests and faculty blockades

Public opinion poll
February 2025

CRTA: METHODOLOGY

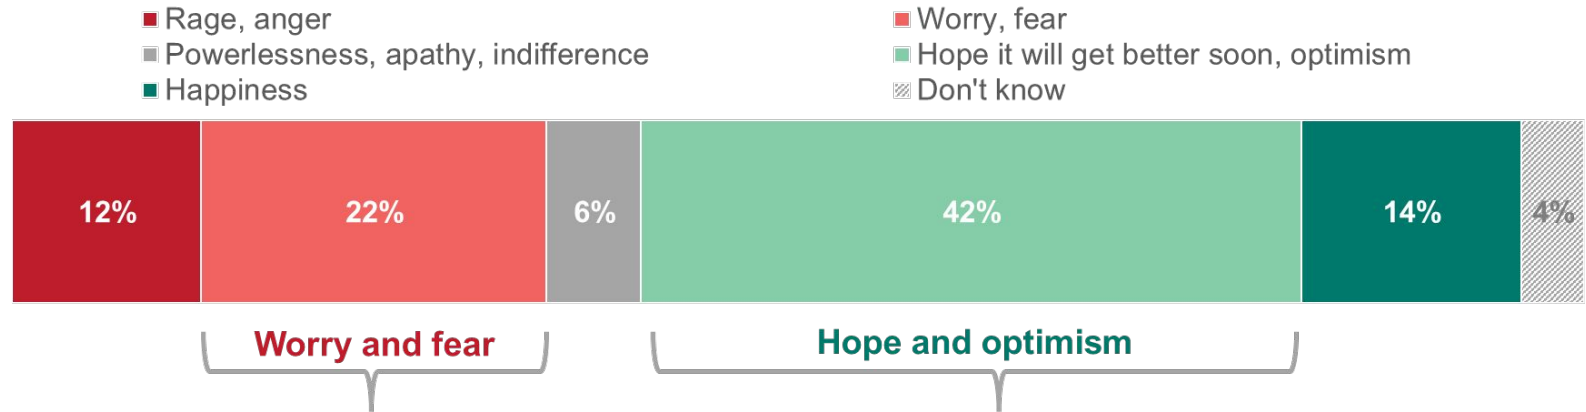

Target population	Adult citizens of the Republic of Serbia
Sample size	1065 respondents
Data collection method	Computer-assisted telephone interviewing (CATI)
Type of sample	Random sample - RDD (Random digit dialing), Representative for the Republic of Serbia
Poststratification	By region, type of settlement, sex, age and education
Questionnaire length	15 minutes
Response rate	18% (interviewed/successfully contacted)
Margin of error	3.1%
Data collection period	February 8 - 13, 2025.

CRTA conducted public opinion research using its own resources and for its own needs

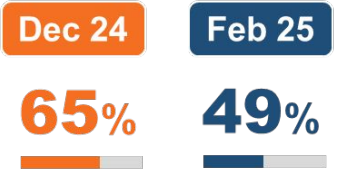

DIRECTION OF THE COUNTRY AND BIGGEST PROBLEMS

CRTA: The continuation of the protests inspires hope and optimism among the citizens who support them

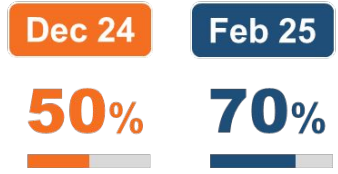

What would you say, which of the following feelings has been the most common for you lately, was it...

Those who support the protests

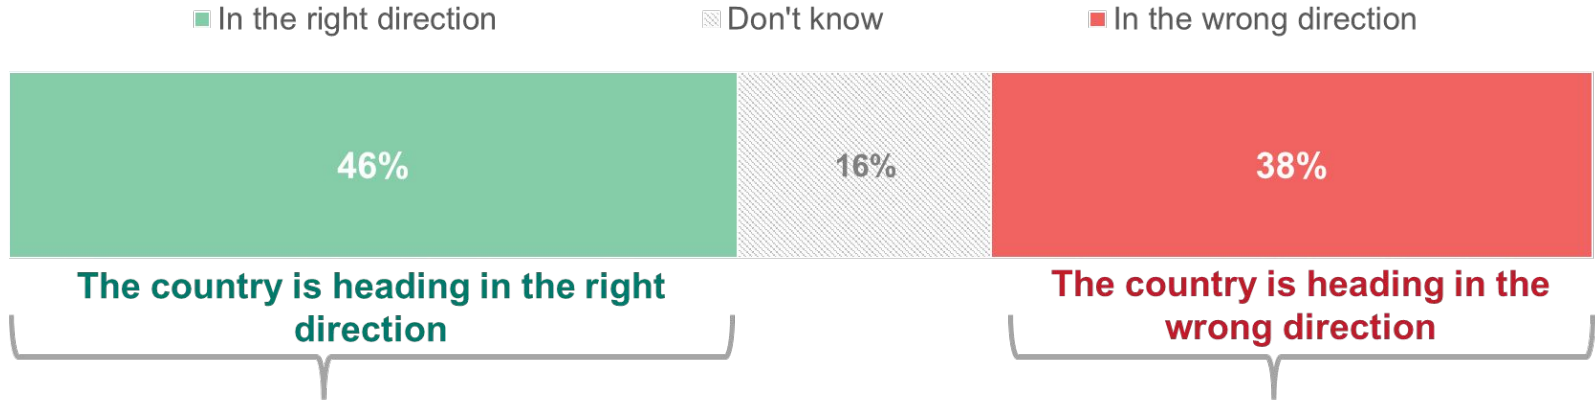

Those who support the protests

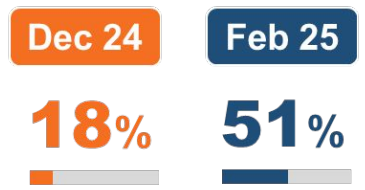

Source: CRTA's survey, February 2025. Methodology: CATI, n=1065, randomly selected, representative for adult population of Serbia. ME 3.1%

CRTA: Citizens who support the protests are changing the perception of the direction in which the country is moving

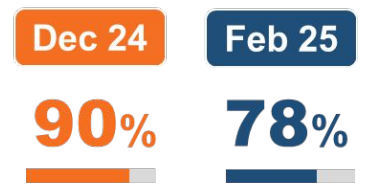

In your opinion, is Serbia moving in the right or wrong direction?

Those who support the protests

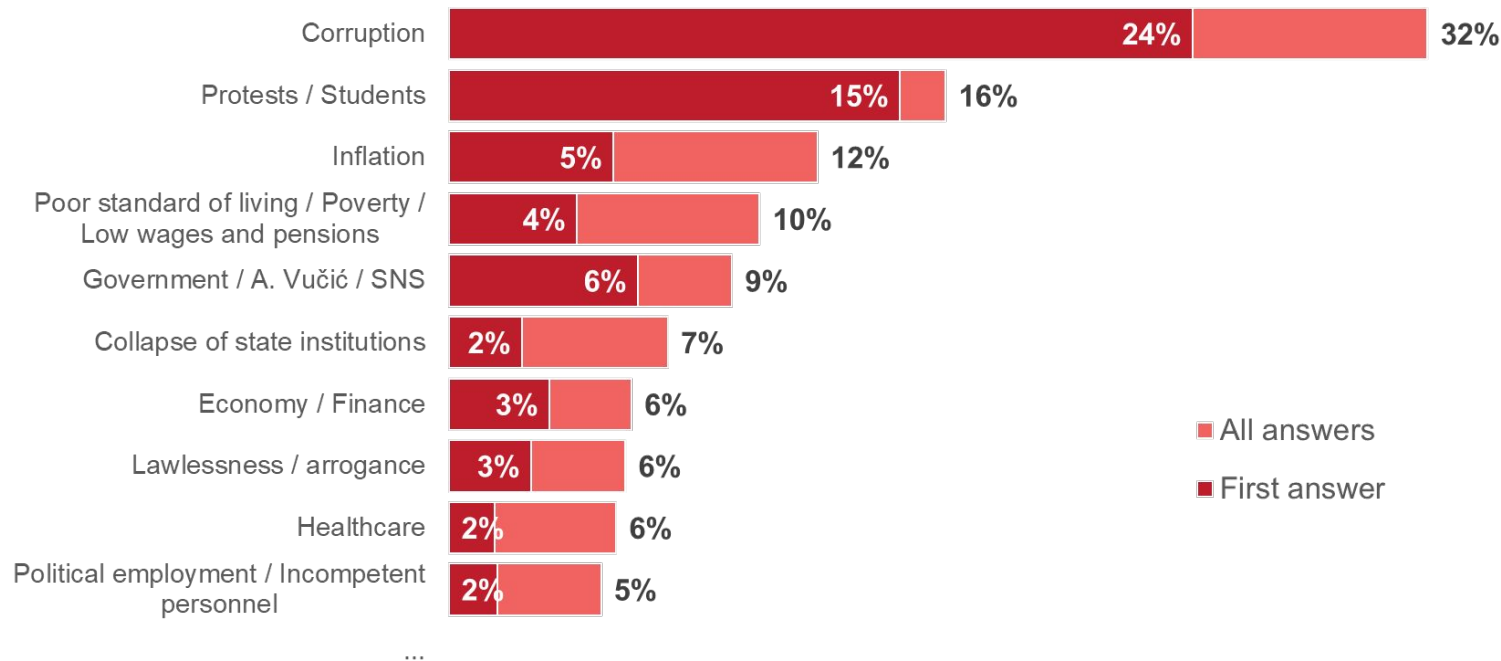

Those who support the protests

Source: CRTA's survey, February 2025. Methodology: CATI, n=1065, randomly selected, representative for adult population of Serbia. ME 3.1%

CRTA: Citizens single out corruption as by far the biggest problem in Serbia

What would you say are the biggest problems Serbia faces at the moment?

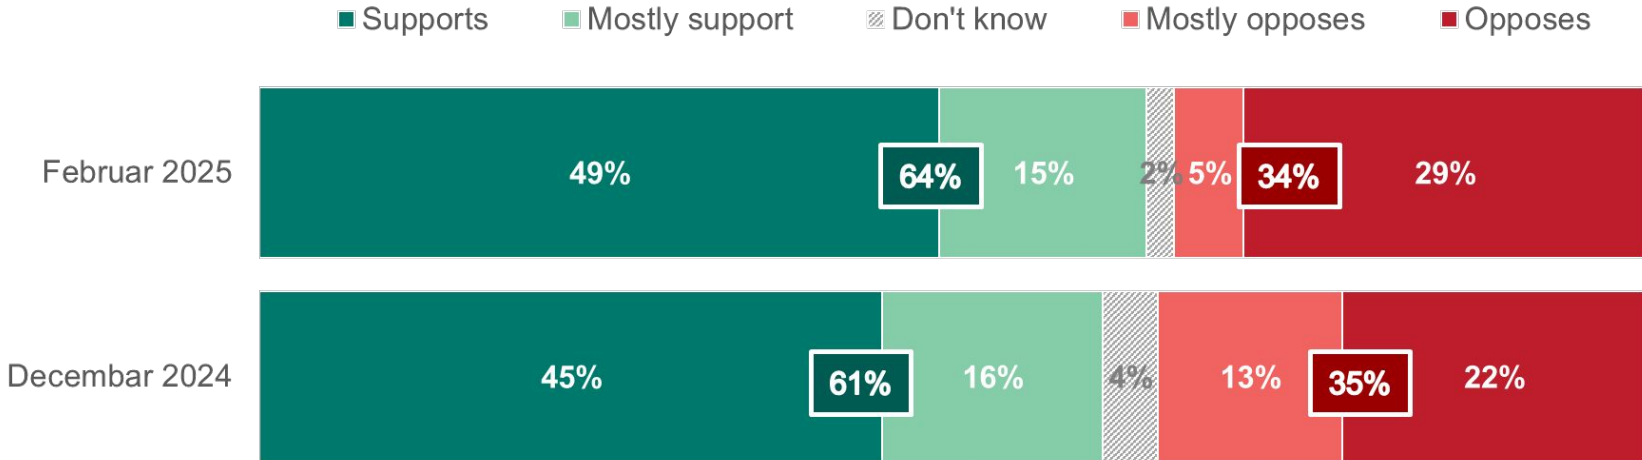

Top ten problems are shown

PROTESTS AND BLOCKADES

CRTA: Support for the protests is growing, but citizens' attitudes are also becoming more polarized

To what extent do you support the protests?

Source: CRTA's survey, February 2025. Methodology: CATI, n=1065, randomly selected, representative for adult population of Serbia. ME 3.1%

CRTA: For the last two months, the biggest increase in support for the protests was recorded among those who support the parties in power

To what extent do you support the protests?

December 2024

February 2025

■ Supports ■ Don't know ■ Opposes

■ Supports ■ Don't know ■ Opposes

Total

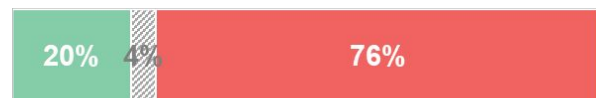

Total

Closer to the parties in power

Closer to the parties in power

Closer to the opposition parties

Closer to the opposition parties

Undecided

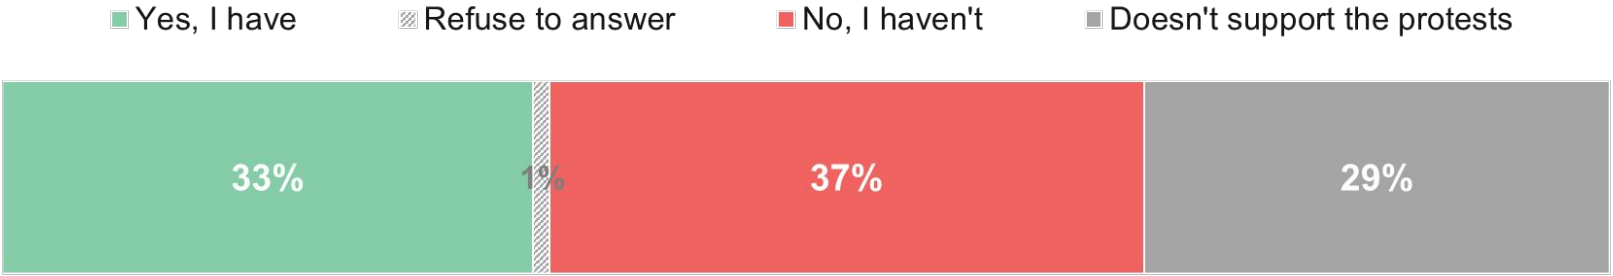

Undecided

Source: CRTA's survey, February 2025. Methodology: CATI, n=1065, randomly selected, representative for adult population of Serbia. ME 3.1%

CRTA: A third of citizens claim to have participated in protests at least once in the last three months

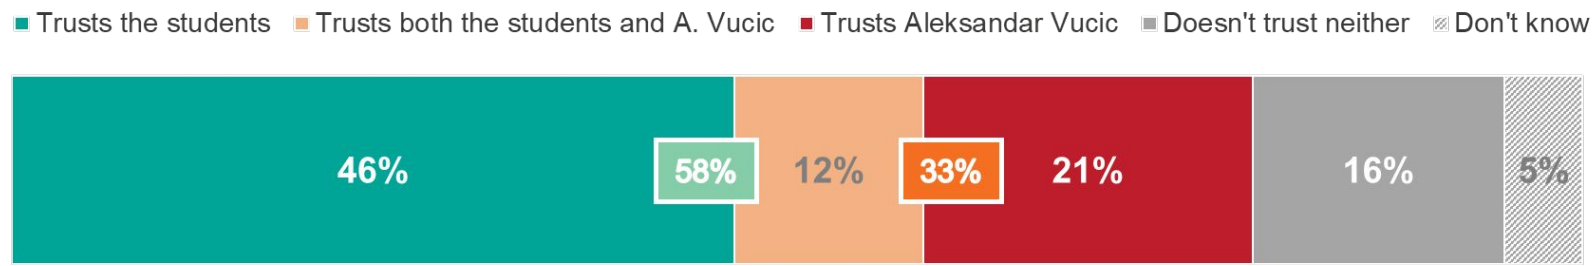

In the last three months, have you, at least once, participated in protests that are organized throughout Serbia?

Source: CRTA's survey, February 2025. Methodology: CATI, n=1065, randomly selected, representative for adult population of Serbia. ME 3.1%

CRTA: Almost 60% of citizens trusts the students, while the President of the Republic, Aleksandar Vučić, is trusted by a third of citizens

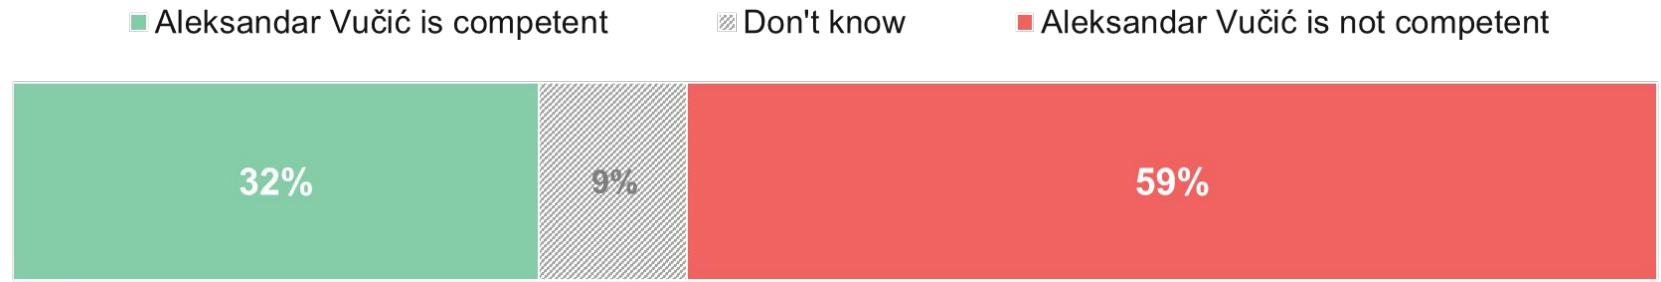

What would you say, who do you trust more...

Source: CRTA's survey, February 2025. Methodology: CATI, n=1065, randomly selected, representative for adult population of Serbia. ME 3.1%

CRTA: About 60% of citizens believe that Aleksandar Vučić is not competent in the matter of student demands

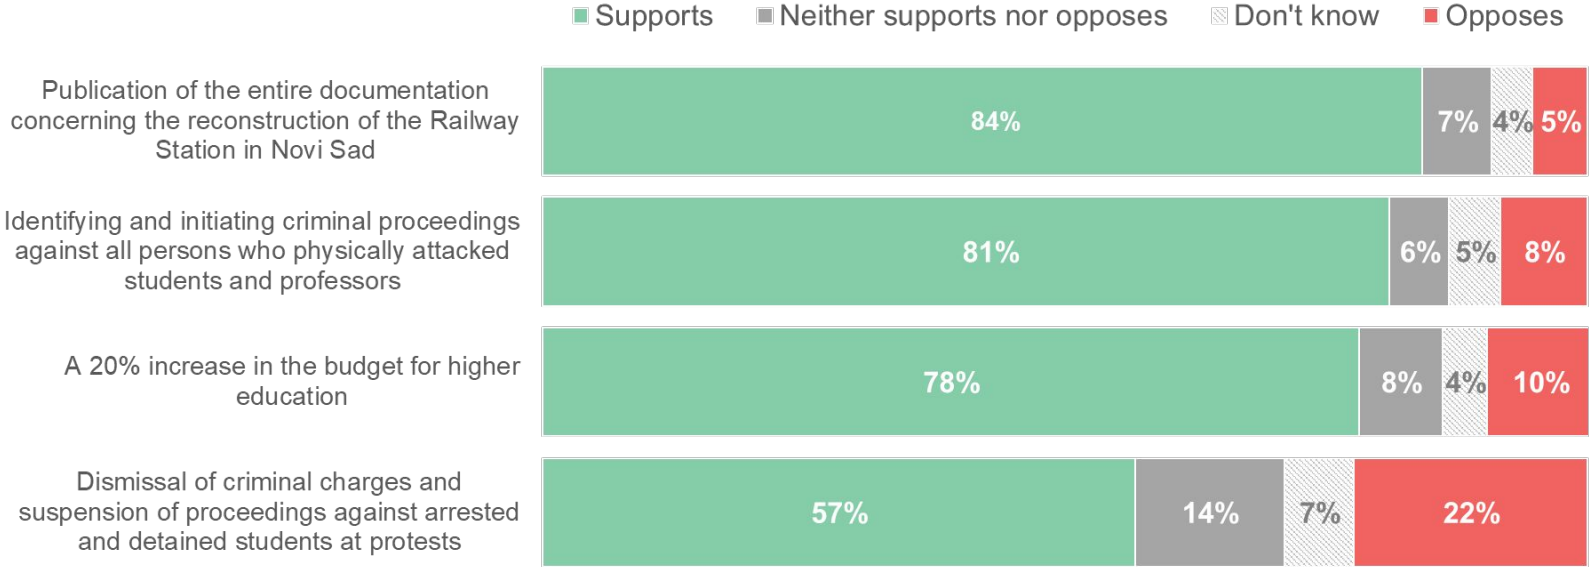

In your opinion, is Aleksandar Vučić competent to fulfill the demands of students?

Source: CRTA's survey, February 2025. Methodology: CATI, n=1065, randomly selected, representative for adult population of Serbia. ME 3.1%

CRTA: Most of the student demands have extremely high support, which presents the potential for further support for the protests

I will now read a few items to you. Please tell me whether you support them or not.

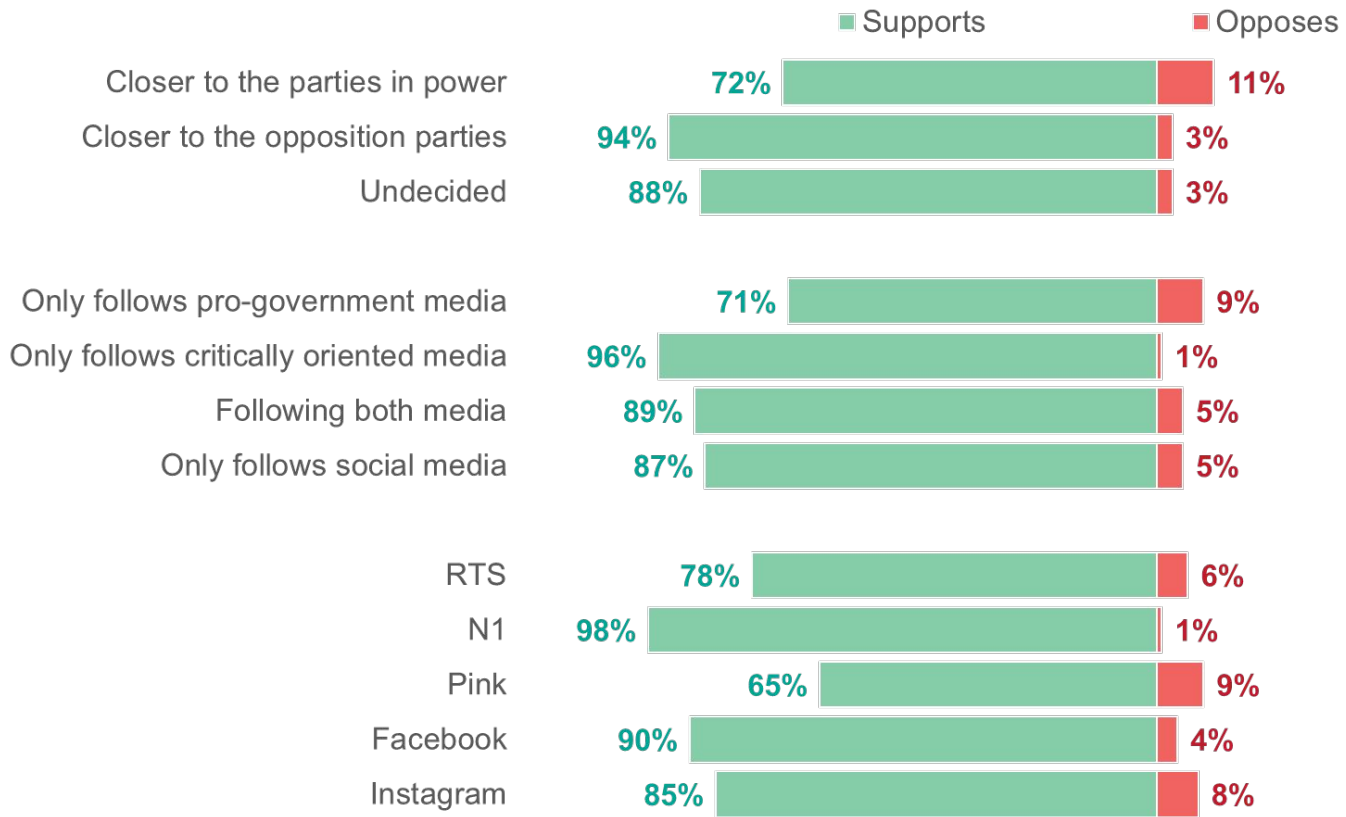

Source: CRTA's survey, February 2025. Methodology: CATI, n=1065, randomly selected, representative for adult population of Serbia. ME 3.1%

CRTA: Demographic profile of citizens regarding support for requests for document publication

Source: CRTA's survey, February 2025. Methodology: CATI, n=1065, randomly selected, representative for adult population of Serbia. ME 3.1%

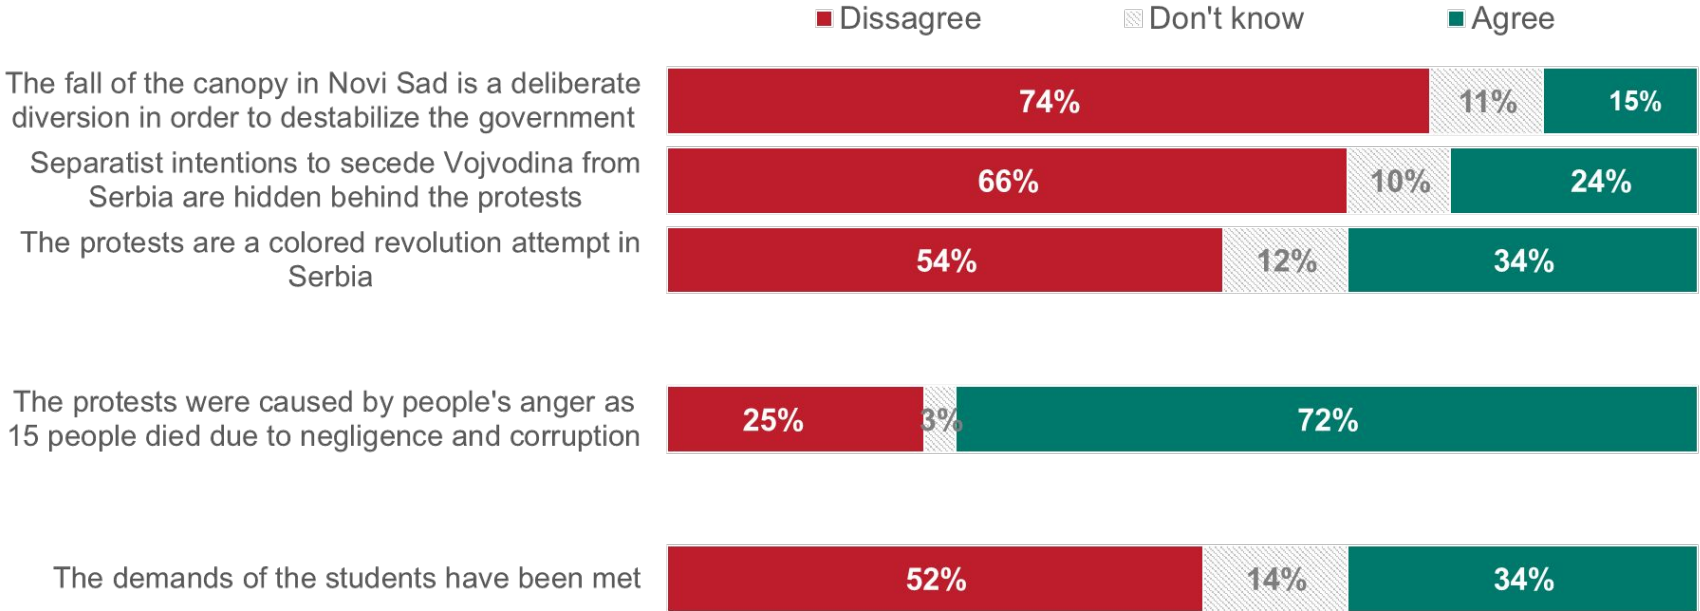

CRTA: Support for the request to publish documentation in relation to political and media preferences

Source: CRTA's survey, February 2025. Methodology: CATI, n=1065, randomly selected, representative for adult population of Serbia. ME 3.1%

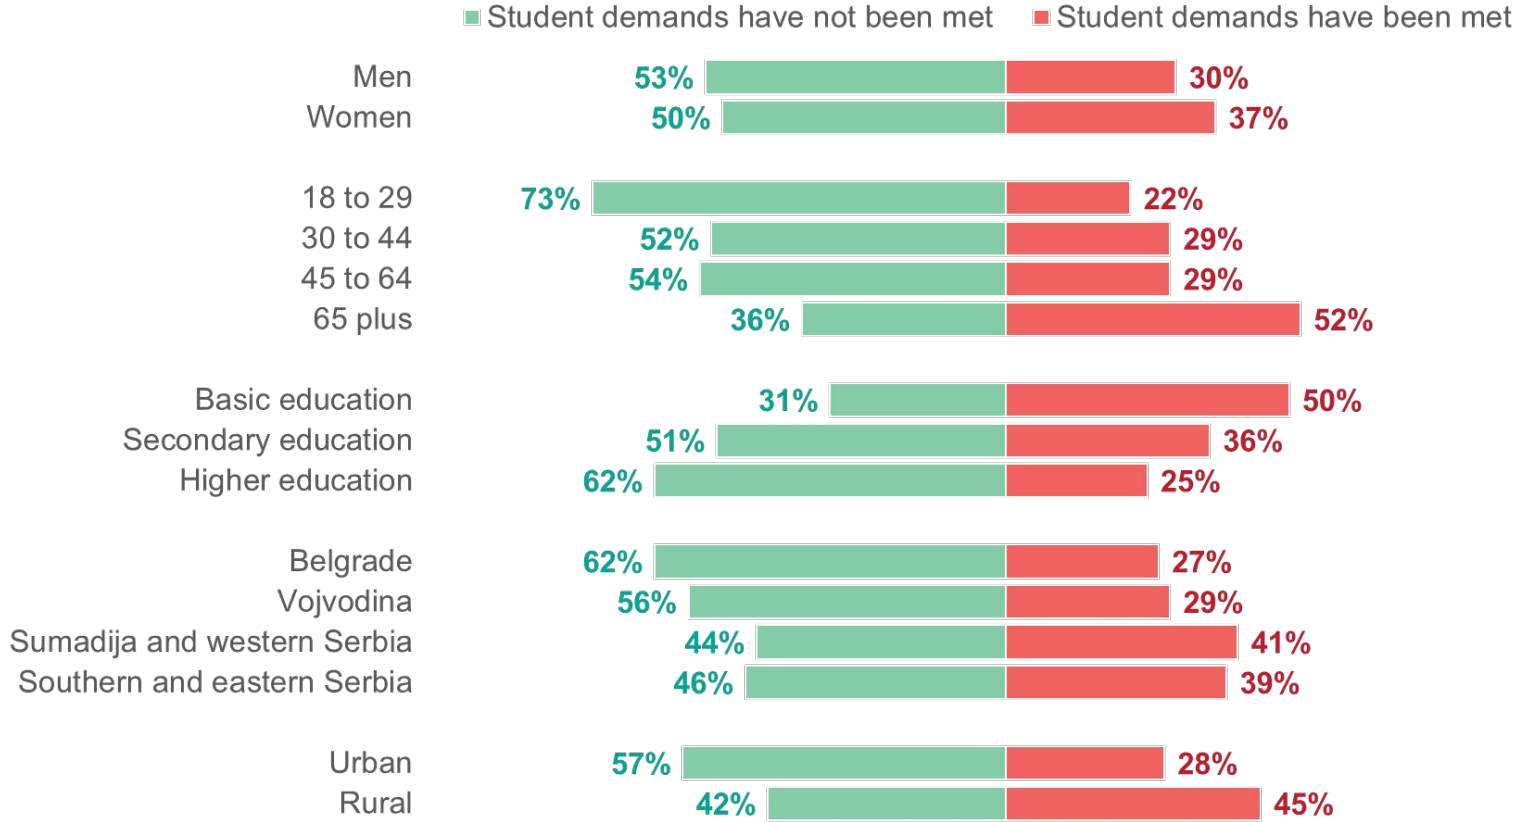

CRTA: The majority of citizens do not believe in manipulations regarding protests. They think that the protests are the result of state corruption and point out that the demands have not been met

People have different views regarding the tragedy in Novi Sad and the student protests that followed. To what extent do you agree with the following statements?

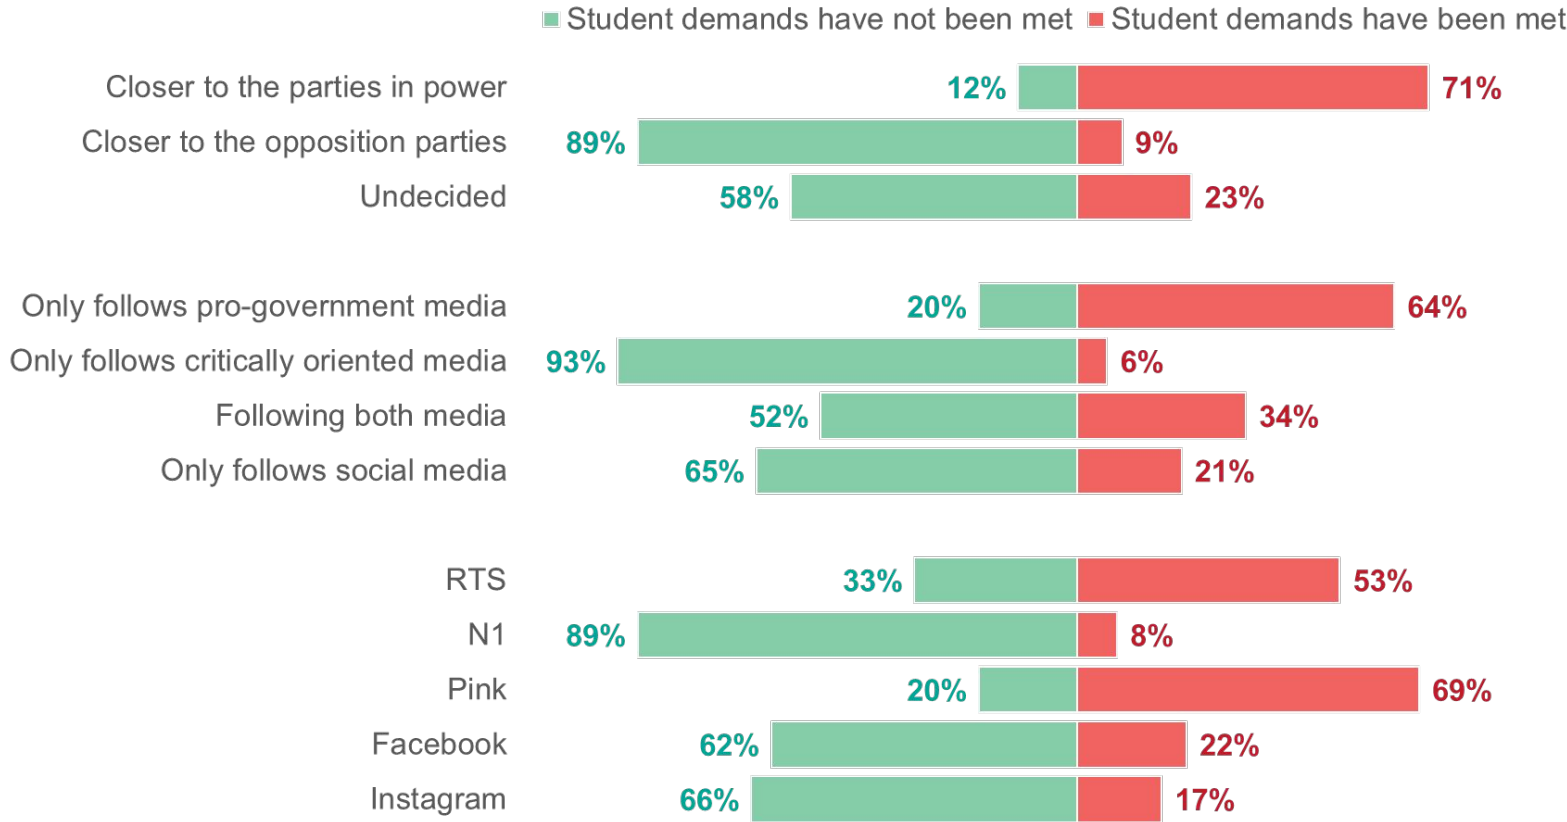

Source: CRTA's survey, February 2025. Methodology: CATI, n=1065, randomly selected, representative for adult population of Serbia. ME 3.1%

CRTA: Perceptions about the fulfillment of student demands - demographic profile

Source: CRTA's survey, February 2025. Methodology: CATI, n=1065, randomly selected, representative for adult population of Serbia. ME 3.1%

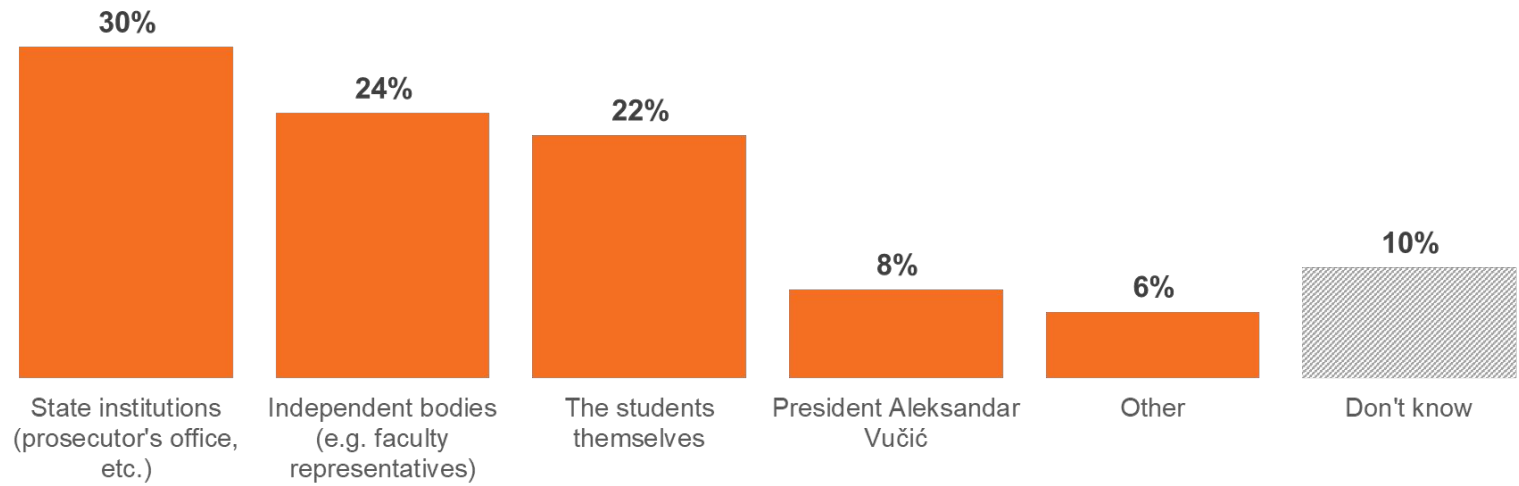

CRTA: Perceptions about the fulfillment of student demands in relation to political and media preferences

Source: CRTA's survey, February 2025. Methodology: CATI, n=1065, randomly selected, representative for adult population of Serbia. ME 3.1%

Almost half of the citizens believe that the students themselves or faculty representatives should determine whether the student's demands have been met

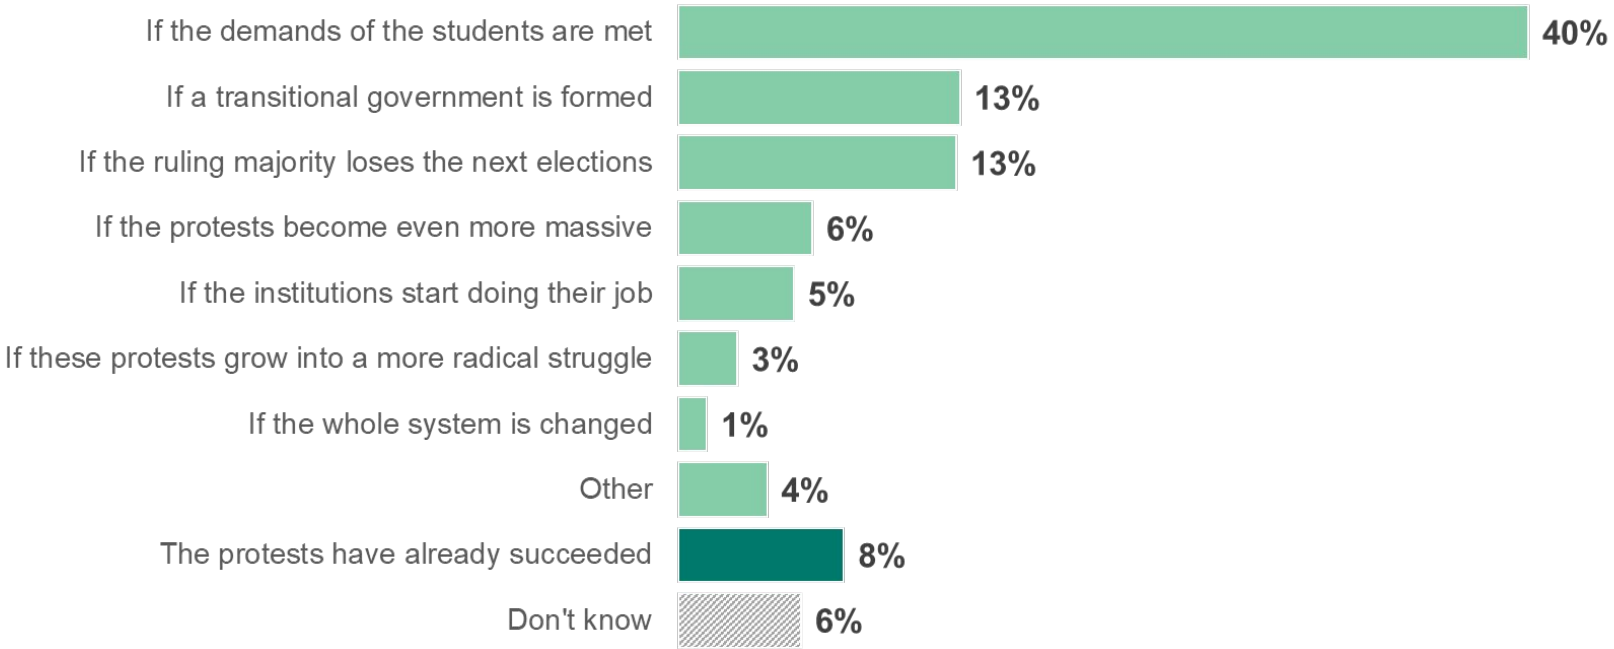

Who should determine whether student demands have been met?

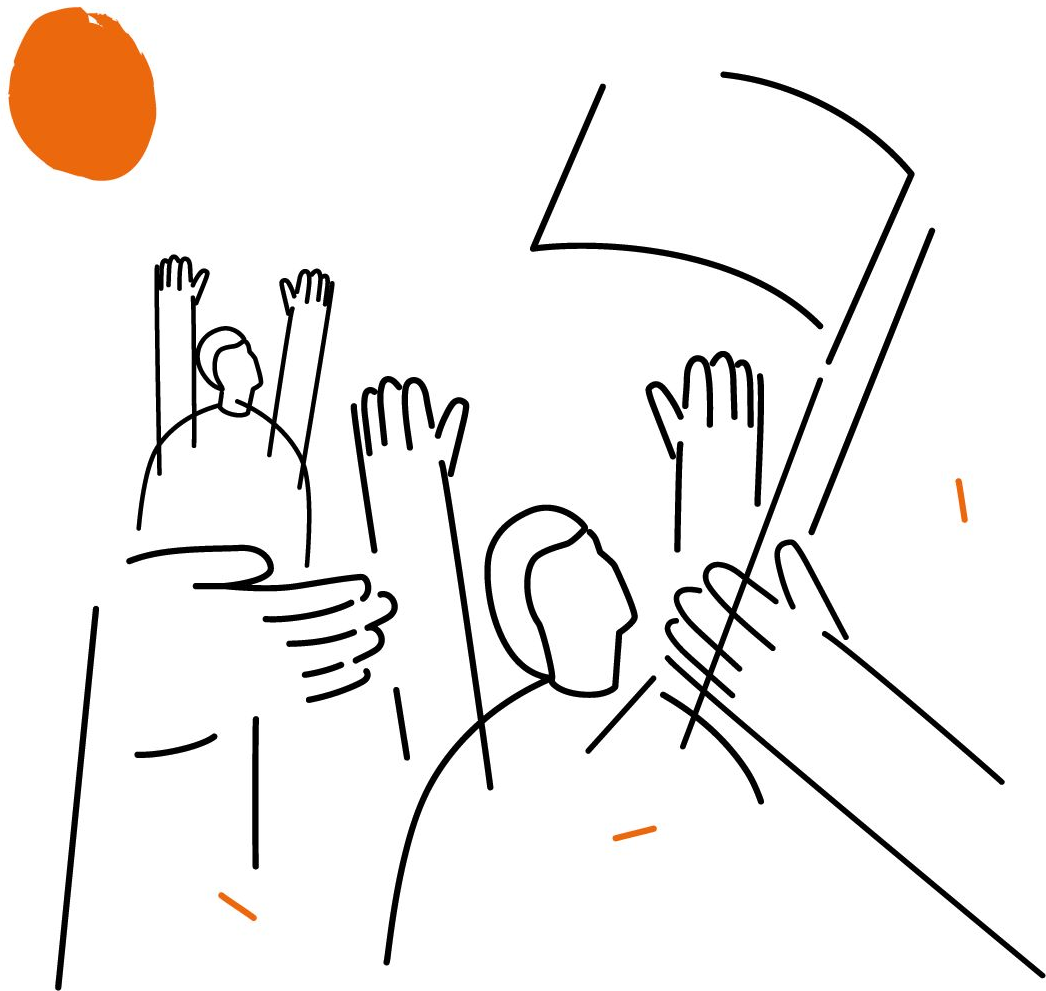

Source: CRTA's survey, February 2025. Methodology: CATI, n=1065, randomly selected, representative for adult population of Serbia. ME 3.1%

CRTA: Meeting the demands of the students is most often seen as a precondition for the success of the protest

What, in your opinion, should first of all happen in order for you to consider these protests successful?

Source: CRTA's survey, February 2025. Methodology: CATI, n=1065, randomly selected, representative for adult population of Serbia. ME 3.1%

CRTA: